

JAMAL ZAMAN KAUS DRIVES HOME A PERODUA ALZA 1.5H AFTER WINNING “BELANJA DAN MENANG” CASHLESS CAMPAIGN AT PLUS’ R&R

Petaling Jaya, 28 April 2026 – Jamal Zaman Kaus is named the lucky winner of the ‘Belanja dan Menang’ campaign. He takes home the grand prize of Perodua Alza 1.5H valued at nearly RM70,000.00. The ‘Belanja dan Menang’ campaign is a programme that encourages cashless usage at the Rest and Service Areas (R&R) along the PLUS Highways. This strategic campaign is organised by PLUS Malaysia Berhad (PLUS) in collaboration with Payments Network Malaysia Sdn. Bhd. (PayNet).

During a speech at the prize giving ceremony, the Managing Director of PLUS, Datuk Nik Airina Nik Jaffar said, “This campaign supports the nation’s aspiration to transform into a digitally driven, high income nation by 2030 aligned to the MyDIGITAL Blueprint. This can be leveraged through cashless payments modes via MyDebit and DuitNow QR platform which offers convenience, seamlessness and security to highway users. Throughout the campaign period, PLUS recorded an increase of more than 22% in the use of cashless digital payments at Rest and Service Areas (R&R) as well as lay-bys along the North-South Expressway. This achievement was further supported by the participation of more than 500 merchants, reflecting the growing adoption of cashless payments among highway users.”

She added, “PLUS’ intends to accelerate the transformation towards smart highways, while enhancing the user experience for more seamless spending during stops at rest areas. To date, 98% of R&R and lay-bys along the PLUS Highway have adopted and implemented cashless payments.”

Also present to officiate the ceremony were the Director General of the Malaysian Highway Authority, Ir. Mohd Hadzmir Yusoff. Also in attendance were the Deputy Director-General (Operations) Malaysian Highway Authority, Ir. Ts. Husain Osman; Chief Commercial Officer of PayNet, Azrul Fakhzan Mainor and the Chief Commercial Officer of PLUS, Mohd Fauzi Puniran.

According to the Chief Commercial Officer of PayNet, Azrul Fakhzan Mainor, “Our long-standing partnership with PLUS is driven by a shared vision to make digital payments seamless and practical for everyday use. Since 2022, we have supported the digitalisation of merchants at PLUS R&Rs, beginning with MyDebit acceptance and expanding to full DuitNow QR platform enablement across all locations in 2025, enabling merchants to operate more efficiently while moving these locations closer to a fully cashless environment.”

The ‘Belanja dan Menang’ campaign ran from 1 October to 31 December 2025, with more than 30,000 participation receipts recorded throughout the period. Winners were selected from participants who spent a minimum of RM30 in a single day using MyDebit or DuitNowQR, based on accumulated receipts at any R&R and lay-bys along the PLUS.
