FLASH FLOOD: TEMPORARY CLOSURE OF BOTH BOUNDS OF THE NEW KLANG VALLEY EXPRESSWAY (NKVE) BETWEEN SHAH ALAM AND SETIA ALAM (KM9.1 – KM9.4) TO ALL VEHICLES

Petaling Jaya, 2 November 2026:- PLUS Malaysia Berhad confirms that traffic on both bounds along Setia Alam to Shah Alam (KM9.1 – KM9.4) of the New Klang Valley Expressway (NKVE) is currently impassable and has been temporarily closed to all vehicles following a flash flood reported at approximately 6.20pm today, following continuous heavy rainfall in the area.

As an immediate safety measure, vehicles from Subang heading southbound are being diverted off the expressway via ELITE. Meanwhile, vehicles from Bukit Raja heading northbound are being diverted off the expressway at the Setia Alam Interchange.

Highway users are encouraged to refer PLUS Malaysia Berhad's official channels through X @PLUSTrafik, the PLUS App, Electronic Message Boards (VMS), the PLUS virtual assistant PUTRI and official PLUS social media platforms for the latest updates on weather and flood conditions and available alternative routes.

Safety Guidelines for Motorists:

1. Do Not Attempt to Cross: Even shallow-looking water can stall your engine or sweep a vehicle off the road.
2. Follow On-Site Instructions: Please adhere to all temporary signage and instructions from our on-site teams.

For immediate assistance, please contact PLUSLine at 1-800-88-0000, use the SOS button on the PLUS App, or chat with our virtual assistant, PUTRI.
